HARDING UNIVERSITY

January 2, 1961

Mr. H. C. Caruthers
Adamsville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Caruthers,

In making a final check on my meeting schedule for 1961, I discovered that a conflict has arisen concerning the date for our proposed meeting at Adamsville. The date I have listed is July 16-23, 1961, but upon checking I discovered that I have a meeting in Fulton, Miss., July 9-16, 1961. The meeting in Fulton was scheduled over a year ago and is to close Sunday night, July 16. If the Brethren at Adamsville would still prefer the dates given it would be necessary for me to start the meeting on Monday night, July 17.

This meets my approval completely, however, the brethren there may have reason to suggest another time. Please accept my sincere apology for this conflict, and I hope that some satisfactory solution can be found. I am looking forward with eagerness to our joint efforts.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
